Paul Hunter, Midlothian, led the Chicago golfers in the 18-hole qualifying round of the western amateur golf championship at Cleveland, when he tied with Jack Neville of San Francisco at 76 for low score. E. H. Bankard, Donald Edwards, William Rautenbusch, Chick Evans, Mason Phelps, Bob Shealy and Carl Deyol were among the 18 Chicagoans who finished in the first 64, from which 32 will qualify today for match play.

Evans had a poor 81, but possessed a good alibi in the fact that he had left his clubs in Chicago and playing with strange ones. His first ten holes were mediocre, but the last eight were rattled off in par. Chick will have his own implements today. Fine work on the greens is required over the Mayfield course and this may handicap the present champion.

Dewey Knight, Binga Desmond, Roy Campbell, Johnnie Breathed and Herman Stegeman will represent the University of Chicago at the National A. A. U. championships at the Panama-Pacific exposition. Desmond and Campbell were point winners at the elimination meet last Saturday.

Seven athletes will be sent by the I. A. C. Ivan Meyers, De Pauw athlete and Conference mile champion, being the star of the crew. The men will leave next Tuesday, arriving in time to train properly before the meet.

Milburn Saylor knocked out Billy Wagner of Chicago in the sixth round at Cincinnati. Wagner was out-fought all the way.

Mickey Sheridan, 26, 3815 S. Halsted, a lightweight boxer of local fame, was injured when struck by an auto at 32d street and Indiana av. Sheridan was forced to cancel five fights he had for next two months.

New York Yanks have offered $3,500 for Outfielder Miller of Mobile, one of the best hitters of the Southern league. Donovan is not satisfied with his gang's batting.

Right now Manager Rowland is facing the critical period of his endeavor to compose a winning combination from the different units wearing White Sox uniforms. He must hammer team spirit into all the men and keep them plugging when things are breaking badly, as they have been the past few days.

The Sox no longer carry the prestige of leaders and this may have an effect on the playing of some of the fellows. They are making a stern chase and cannot afford to ease up for a single moment and take a breathing period, for in that event Boston, tempered by several seasons
